

Union Public Library Association

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Date: _____

When first organized in 1820 as a private library, Union's membership was solely by invitation. Today, membership to the Union Public Library Association is open to anyone who would like to support the efforts to maintain this historic structure. The Association maintains the grounds and building and covers the costs of insurance and security through donations and fundraising efforts. Membership dues are $5.00 annually – the same since the library opened in 1820. Your support through membership and/or volunteering will help to preserve this local treasure.

Annual dues: $5.00

Please fill out and return this form along with a check made payable to Union Public Library Association and send to:
